Convicted Wife Slayer Not to Be Free Long

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard was expected to be back in prison today after spending his first night of freedom in years in a plush motel here.

The 40-year-old former osteopath had meals served in his room, went swimming and visited with relatives. And he was reunited with a fiancée he did not know before entering Ohio Penitentiary nine years ago for the 1954 bludgeoning slaying of his wife, Marilyn.

The controversial murder case that attracted worldwide interest became even more bizarre in the last two days.

A federal district judge in Dayton ruled Wednesday that Sheppard had been denied constitutional rights in his trial and ordered him released from prison, setting the stage for a retrial.

Thursday, the balding one-time Cleveland suburbanite walked out of the penitentiary. About the same time, a U.S. appeals court judge in Cincinnati stayed the district court order. That meant Sheppard had to return to prison at least until a hearing could be conducted on the stay order.

The papers necessary to return Sheppard to the prison arrived here about 7 p.m. but state officials could not locate a U.S. marshal to serve them and take Sheppard into custody.

After signing his $10,000 bond papers in the federal building here Thursday, Sheppard went to the motel and told newsmen he would remain there until a marshal arrived.

Sheppard steadfastly has contended that a bushy-haired intruder beat his pregnant wife to death on July 4, 1954. Although only months away from a possible parole, Sheppard now faces the risk of a retrial that could result in a first-degree murder conviction and a possible death sentence. Originally he was found guilty of second-degree murder in a two-month trial that ended Dec. 21, 1954.

Enlisted Man Is Killed in S. Viet Nam

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—A U.S. Army enlisted man was killed by Viet Cong fire shortly before dawn today as government forces launched an operation against guerrillas in the Mekong River delta.

The American died near the provincial capital of Can Tho, 80 miles southwest of Saigon. The death brought to 159 the number of U.S. servicemen killed in combat in Viet Nam since December 1961.

Earlier today a U.S. spokesman reported that five U.S. Navy Seabees were wounded when guerrillas ambushed their station wagon Thursday near the southern tip of Viet Nam.

The spokesman said four of the men received only minor wounds and the fifth was brought to a Saigon hospital but his condition was not serious. The ambush occurred as the Seabees were driving on a road paralleling a canal. Guerrillas concealed along the opposite bank opened up on the vehicle with a machine-gun and rifle grenades.

Meanwhile, Premier Nguyen Khanh sent two teams of investigators to the northern border area to check his contention that Communist North Vietnamese troops are crossing the frontier.

U.S. intelligence men say so-called volunteers from the North Vietnamese Army have long crossed to the south to provide leadership for the Viet Cong but deny they have been coming down in combat units.

The United States has said any real North Vietnamese offensive would justify an immediate extension of the war to the Communist.

RULES MURDER CONVICTION MOCKERY—U.S. District Judge Carl A. Wenman ruled in Columbus, Ohio, that Dr. Sam Sheppard's 1954 trial for the murder of his wife "was a mockery of justice," and granted the osteopath a writ of habeas corpus calling for his immediate release from prison. Cuyahoga County prosecutor John T. Corrigan declared he would try everything to keep Sheppard behind bars.

Recognizes UN Group for First Time

By MILTON BESSER
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—For the first time the Soviet Union has given the U.N. Committee on Peaceful Uses of Outer Space a summary of Soviet accomplishments in space research, an informed source said today.

The source said the 30-page document was "extremely interesting" and an encouraging development for the 28-nation committee. The committee will meet at U.N. headquarters Oct. 26 to draft a report for the General Assembly opening Nov. 10. The United Nations will publish the Soviet summary after it is translated and the Russians check the translation for accuracy.

The United States and other nations on the committee previously submitted information on their space research.

The last General Assembly approved by acclamation a program to promote international cooperation in exploration of outer space, including further exploration of the solar system. It also approved the establishment of legal guidelines on space activity.

In his last appearance before the United Nations, the late President John F. Kennedy proposed that the Soviet Union join the United States in a manned expedition to the moon. President Johnson repeated the proposal after Kennedy's death. The Russians expressed interest but said they wanted more time to study the matter.

At its October meeting, the U.N. space committee will consider reports from subcommittees dealing with legal and scientific and technical aspects of outer space cooperation. They had met earlier this year in Geneva.

Only if he succeeds in producing three inches of rain by Monday over the watershed serving Hastings Lake will he receive $400.

Two Detective Satellites Are Sent Into Orbit

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Two sentry satellites and a "pygmy" satellite rocketed into great egg-shaped orbits today in a complex triple launching that could lead to U.S. development of a foolproof system to detect illicit nuclear explosions in space.

The trio of radiation-sensing packages rode into space atop a single powerful Atlas-Agena rocket which blazed brilliantly in the early morning darkness at 3:22 a.m. (EST).

The Air Force reported 20 minutes later that the 10-story-tall booster had drilled the three satellites into separate highly elliptical orbits.

The exact path was not known immediately but early tracking information indicated the payloads were very close to the intended course ranging from 120 to 63,000 miles above the earth.

All three space messengers were flashing clear radio signals to ground stations.

It was the fourth time the United States had orbited three satellites with one rocket. The record is four in one shot set by another Atlas-Agena last

The pygmy satellite was injected into its pre-planned path shortly after the three satellites separated from the booster today.

Because of an intricate flight plan intended to station the twin Sentry satellites at the high point of the course, officials will not know until about 10:30 a.m. Sunday whether the launching is completely successful.

Small rockets aboard the pair are to arrest them at widely scattered points 63,000 miles up—one about 18 hours after launching, the other about 37 hours later.

The Sentries, each weighing 493 pounds, are forerunners of a network of satellites that will peer electronically more than 200 million miles into space to discover if the Soviet Union or any other nation cheats on the partial nuclear test ban treaty by exploding a rocket-borne bomb far from earth.

The 4.5-pound pygmy, which rode along as a hitchhiker, was to aid the study by measuring electrons during wide-sweeping sweeps through the Van Allen radiation belts.

Officials said knowledge of electron characteristics in the belts that extend 40,000 miles above the earth would be valuable in noting changes if a nuclear explosion occurred outside the atmosphere.

In a similar manner, the two nuclear detection satellites were to draw a radiation chart of space, including what happens when their sensitive instruments are struck by surges of charged particles from a solar flare or cosmic ray shower. With this knowledge, operational satellites would be able quickly to differentiate between natural radiation and that created by a sneak nuclear burst.

Officials of the Atomic Energy Commission said the pair of Sentries could be used as a limited operational tool, just as two earlier satellites in the series have been utilized. The initial watchdog satellites were hurled into orbit last Oct. 16, just six days after the nuclear test ban treaty was signed by more than 100 nations, including the United States and Russia. France did not sign.

The treaty prohibits nuclear testing in the atmosphere, under water or in space, but does not forbid underground detonations.

Miller Quickly Picked by GOP Convention

By BARRY SCHWEID

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—William E. Miller, a New York congressman who planned to quit politics this year, says he is running for vice president to help "re-establish reason in government."

"To be asked to join with millions of fellow citizens in a nationwide crusade . . . is no less than a thrilling experience," the peppery campaigner said Thursday night as he accepted second place on the Republican ticket.

Flanked by his wife and two daughters, Miller declared:

"My family and I hear pledge ourselves to you that we shall devote our hearts and our hands, our energies, and our abilities, and our spirit and our enthusiasm to this greatest challenge of my lifetime."

There was a lack of partisanship in the acceptance speech of the 50-year-old lawyer from Olcott, N.Y., who has built his reputation on sharpshooting at Democrats. Rather, there were expressions of humility and love, tributes to Barry Goldwater and Dwight D. Eisenhower and what appeared to be a beckoning to supporters of civil rights legislation.

Unlike Sen. Goldwater, the GOP presidential nominee, Miller supported the Civil Rights Act. And, in his acceptance speech, he said:

"I love the people of the United States—200 million strong, devoted to God, consecrated to liberty, and all crusaders for justice, all crusaders for equality of opportunity for every person on the face of this earth."

Of Goldwater, Miller said: "I want the record unmistakably clear, I vastly respect and admire the courage, the integrity, the selfless commitment to principle of one of the most dynamic and forceful leaders in all our nation's history."

And of Eisenhower, the last Republican to reside in the White House, Miller said, "His inspiration and his example guide us still."

A Roman Catholic and a graduate of Notre Dame University, Miller provides political balance to Goldwater's Episcopalian religion and Arizona background. The Miller nomination was offered by Sen. Gordon Allott of Colorado, duly seconded and unanimously approved.

Officer Kills Knife Happy Negro Youth

NEW YORK (AP)—Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy promises a "thorough and impartial investigation" of the fatal shooting of a Negro youth by an off-duty white police lieutenant who said the youth came at him with a knife.

The killing Thursday in a Manhattan street near a public school touched off violence among 300 teen-agers, mostly Negro, and 75 steel-helmeted police.

"Come on, shoot another Nigger," shouted one of several weeping Negro girls.

The crowd taunted police and hurled school books, bottles, cans and stones. Patrolman Edward Seabrook, 35, the only Negro policeman there, was hit on the head by a can and was taken to a hospital.

The police and the crowd surged back and forth in East 76th street for about an hour before the crowd was broken up.

The dead youth was 15-year-old James Powell, one of three Negroes Police Lt. Thomas Gilligan said he found chasing a building superintendent into an apartment building.

Police said trouble began when the white building superintendent, cleaning the sidewalk with a hose, sprayed the three Negro youths, who then chased him into his building.

They said the three youths and the superintendent engaged in a heated argument and there reportedly were racial slurs.

Gilligan showed his badge, police said, and ordered the boys to stop banging garbage can lids and move on.

Police Inspector Joseph Coyle said the lieutenant "fired in defense of himself" when Powell came at Gilligan with a pocket knife and failed to heed a warning to stop. Coyle said the knife was found in the gutter.

Goldwater to Chart Course for Campaign

By WALTER R. MEARS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, charting a presidential campaign course for the Republican party he now commands, puts his men at the helm today after a triumphant call to the conservative colors.

Goldwater's acceptance address at the GOP national convention Thursday night was an outline of the tenets he proclaims, punctuated with slaps at Democrats.

It won a five-minute ovation from shouting, stamping delegates. Then Goldwater and his running mate, Rep. William E. Miller of New York, stood together to take the cheers.

Today, Goldwater goes to work to shape the Republican organization that will guide his campaign for the White House. He will go before the new Republican National Committee—an organization he has designed to run the campaign ahead.

And the committee will ratify his choice of 36-year-old Dean Burch, a Tucson, Ariz., attorney, as its new chairman. Miller harping the post.

"The whole purpose is to make this a tool for the election of Barry Goldwater," said Burch.

The party's new operating chief has been second in command of Goldwater's campaign. Denison Kitchell, the head man, said he will serve as general director of the Senator's campaign.

Finds Frisco Stay Very Expensive

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—For Tennessee delegate Guilford Dudley, the Republican National Convention came at a high cost. Dudley told police that burglars took $16,000 worth of jewelry from his motel room. Said Dudley: "San Francisco is an expensive town to stay in."

San Francisco Chronicle columnist Herb Caen says that Chester G. Arthur, grandson of the 21st president of the United States, was kicked out of the Cow Palace by guards who believed his ticket was counterfeit. "You can't do this to me," Arthur said. But the guards did.

Now that the Republican convention is over, Mayor John F. Shelley of San Francisco, the Democrat who welcomed the delegates at the beginning of the week, no longer feels so hospitable. Addressing some leaders of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Shelley said that as he watched the convention on television he thought he was "witnessing things I had read from Mein Kampf."

A press aide for Sen. Barry Goldwater says the senator's campaign committee raised more than $1 million in individual contributions since Jan. 1.

Fred Mullen, the aide, said several of the contributions were in excess of $1,000, but for the most part they were small donations from some 300,000 individuals averaging about $3 each.

Sen. Barry Goldwater is expected to be back in his Washington office by Monday morning.

He probably will leave San Francisco Saturday for Phoenix and a short rest.

Before accepting the Republican presidential nomination, Sen. Barry Goldwater spent two hours at the controls of a rented two-engine plane flying over California, including one pass over the Cow Palace.

His press secretary, Ed Nelson, said Thursday's jaunt was the third week for the senator, who rented the plane at the San Mateo County Airport.

Piano Recital Sunday at First Baptist

Roger Lawson

Roger Lawson, professor of music at The Woman's College of Georgia, will present a piano recital this Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Church at 3:00.
Mr. Lawson has been on the faculty of WCG since September, 1962, having taught at North Greenville Junior College prior to that. As an accomplished musician, he has gained wide recognition for his outstanding ability. He has been a student of such eminent teachers as Walter Robert of the University of Indiana, A. D. Casadesus of the Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, and Edward Kilenyi of Florida State University.
Mr. Lawson's program will feature selections from Bach, Brahms, Chopin, Liszt, and Bartok. While the recital is not a formal dedication, Mr. Lawson will be playing on the new Steinway grand presented the church a few years ago by Mrs. Larry Moses in memory of her husband. Mr. Lawson is married to the former Jan Moses, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Moses of Hope.
The public is invited to hear Mr. Lawson and to attend the reception to follow immediately in the church Fellowship Hall.

Rev. C. H. Turner

Pastor of the Hopewell Baptist Church, Denison, Texas and Dean of the Galilee Griggs District S. S. and B. T. U. Congress of Texas, the Rev. C. H. Turner, will serve as evangelist for special revival services at Rising Star Missionary Baptist Church Monday July 27 through July 31.
Preaching will be held each night at 8 o'clock according to the Rev. M. S. Riley, pastor.

Now that he has them both as the result of his 403.1 mile per hour auto record set Friday, the 43-year-old Briton apparently intends to keep racing.
His target is the speed of 407.45 m.p.h. set last Aug. 5 by American Craig Breedlove in a three-ton, three-wheeled jet-powered car on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah. This is not an official auto record because of the jet power.
Campbell zoomed his 300-foot 4,250 horsepower Bluebird to 403.1 m.p.h. twice in two runs over the dry salt bed of Lake Eyre in Southern Australia.
The speed eclipsed the record of 394.19 m.p.h. set by the late John Cobb on the Bonneville paiga.

Vowing to battle to victory in November, Goldwater told the convention:
"The good Lord raised up this mighty republic to be a home for the brave and to flourish as the land of the free—not to stagnate in the swampland of collectivism—not to cringe before the bullying of communism."
"The tide has been running against freedom," Goldwater said, and he promised to reverse it.

Goldwater said, "It is the cause of Republicanism to remind ourselves and the world that only the strong can remain free—that only the strong can keep the peace."
"I do not intend to let peace or freedom be torn from our strength or lack of will."
Mrs. Goldwater watched proudly and their two daughters wept as he claimed the nomination and declared:
"You and I are going to fight for the goodness of our land."
Outside the arena, some 500 civil rights demonstrators chanted "Barry must go." Goldwater didn't see them. He left by another exit and a police motorcade whisked him back to the Mark Hopkins Hotel.

A Springfield Youth has found that barking is for the dogs—not humans.

The boy made a barking sound as a Springfield police car carrying a police dog passed by.

The officer halted the car, turned around and asked the youth if he would like to "bark" at the dog "face to face."

at the dog "face to face."

The youth declined. But his action cost him $5.50 in municipal court anyway, on a charge of annoying the dog.

When Mrs. John Ellis of Jonesboro bought an antique from a dealer at Cape Cod near Boston recently, she found the shop really gives value.

Not only was the purchase satisfactory. It was wrapped in a April 29, 1839 newspaper.

She brought the newspaper home and says it has caused more comment than the old paintings she purchased.

A classified ad in the Russellville Courier Democrat gained attention recently. It read, "Warning —To the person who stole my shoes at the swimming pool Saturday, July 4, I have an acute case of athlete's foot."

Bill Newsome in his "Banter by Bill" column reveals this week an answer in the paper a week later: "To whom it may concern—You were right. You do have athlete's foot."

It was signed "Itchy."

Three, Sedgwick (Lawrence County) boys fishing on Cache River near their home caught a three and a half pound carp, not an unusual feat.

But, J. O. Vest, father of one of the youths, found a pearl in the fish as he cleaned it.

To make sure it was a real pearl, he took it to two jewelry stores in Walnut Ridge and four in Jonesboro. All said it was a pearl.

Now he is sending it to Chicago to determine its value.

Nobody has come up with a good explanation of how the pearl got in the fish's stomach.

Easter. Mrs. Easter has also recently visited relatives in Gurdon.

Mrs. Gene Davis, Jr. has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bin McRae, the past week. She and Mr. Davis have recently moved to Durant, Miss. for the summer months.

Debbie Barham went to Six Flags Over Texas last week and visited in Greenville, Texas.

Mrs. Theo Bonds visited in Hooks, Tex., one day last week with three sisters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Dupree of Hooks, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell of Mount Vernon, and the Rev. and Mrs. James Duncan and Steve of Fort Worth.

Gray Jeffreys and John Lund, Deming, N.M., have been visiting Gary's aunt, Mrs. Bin McRae, and Mr. McRae in Hope and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tolleson in Kirby. Before returning to New Mexico they will visit the U of A where Gary plans to go the next school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Hall and son, J. K., San Antonio, were overnight guests of the Raymond Robins family. Mrs. Hall remained for a longer visit.

Mrs. James Cross and son, James, Jr., of Washington, D. C., are visiting Mrs. Ralph Routon, Mrs. T. S. McDavitt, and the Bill Routons. They will be joined on Saturday by Col. Cross and son, Ralph.

Mrs. Foy Hammons returned home Sunday from a month's stay in Richardson, Tex., with the R.J. Herod family.

TONS OF MONEY—After two robberies, one netting burglars $12,000, Frederick C. Roth decided to move his $1 million coin collection from a secluded farmhouse near Cleveland. He found a Cleveland bank with a vault big enough to house tons of coins. To get them out of the third floor of the farmhouse a chute, (left), composed of boards and a ladder was devised and boxes of coins were slid down the chute. Roth, a retired businessman turned coin dealer, displays one of the boxes of coins (right). The ones behind him—and many more—are all filled with coins.

"DEAR ABBY"

CALL FOR HELP, HONEY!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: Can you help me? I want to be a virgin when I get married, but it's getting harder every day. I shoplift for kicks (have never been caught) and I also smoke and drink when I can get it. People say I look like a tramp, and I guess I do. All this is because my father is trying to run my life. He won't let me out after 6 p.m. unless he knows where I'm going, who with, and how long I'll be gone. Even when I tell him the truth, he says I'm lying. I'm sick of being watched like a criminal. I know I'm running with the wrong crowd, but they are the only ones who understand me. I am overweight and my mother never lets me forget it. I break everything I touch because I'm so nervous. If you don't tell me where I can get some help, soon, so help me, Abby, I'm going to find some high place to jump off of.

WANTS TO DIE AT 15

Dear Abby: Show a copy of this confession to your family doctor or pastor. If you can't communicate with your parents, take your misery to a trusted relative. That you recognize your shortcomings and WANT to get help means your struggle is half-won. To "jump" would be meaningless and a tragic waste of life.

Dear Abby: I have a son and a daughter. Both have been married many years. Several years ago I made an heirloom quilt. I could never make another one as my eyes are not good enough and there was much close work involved. I have been offered $100 for it many times, but have refused it. My daughter, once said she would like to have it for her daughter, who is now a teen-ager girl. This girl is very unappreciative, and has never taken very good care of her things.

"My son asked me years ago if I would 'will' it to him. He has a lovely wife who would take good care of it. I don't want to hurt my daughter's feelings, but I would rather see my son and his wife have it. What should I do?"

PONDERING

Dear Pondering: Treat yourself to the pleasure of giving it to your son and his lovely wife while you are living.

Dear Abby: I have heard that when a person is under an anesthetic he talks very plainly and

Refused Service at Capitol

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Negro man was refused service Wednesday at the State Capitol cafeteria.

Mrs. Edris Tye, operator of the cafeteria, told the man that she had not yet decided whether the facility would be desegregated. The man left quietly.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus and Secretary of State Kyle Bryant met last week about whether to desegregate the cafeteria. No decision was announced.

usually says things he would never say if he were conscious. Is this true? I am scheduled for some surgery (not serious) soon and this is very important to me. Is there any other way a person could be "put under" for an operation and be assured that he will not talk? I can't ask my doctor because he belongs to our club and we know a lot of the same people and he might wonder why I am asking. Please don't use my name.

MRS. BLANKETY-BLANK. Dear Mrs. Find out who your anesthetist will be and ask him. Don't worry. Whatever you say will probably be disregarded. Only psychiatrists get paid for listening.

Klan Claims Membership Is Growing

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Leaders of the Ku Klux Klan claim growing membership in their invisible empire because of white resentment to the civil rights law.

"There has been a tremendous reaction to the civil rights bill and this is bringing about a swelling of Klan membership," says Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton Jr., Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Shelton, thin and soft-spoken, has preached "ballots not bullets" in the past several years, trying to rebuild the old Klan with a new nonviolent image.

Shelton said he agreed with Negro leaders that it would be "a hot summer."

A salesman, he is titular head of the United Klans of America Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. This group has following in much of the South.

There is no possible way of checking Klan claims or their strength, since rank-and-file members are anonymous and their leaders refuse to divulge any figures or identities.

The robed order, once known for its night-riding terrorism appears strongest in parts of Alabama, Mississippi and Florida. The Klan apparently has been gaining in Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana.

Elsewhere in the South there is little outward indication of a resurgence of the Klan.

Other segregationist groups have cut into the Klan's field since the U.S. Supreme Court order against segregated public schools 10 years ago.

Klan leaders openly supported former Gov. John Patterson in his campaign and Shelton said, "We elected two governors"—a reference to Patterson and his successor, Gov. George C. Wallace. Neither man repudiated the Klan.

Shelton made an inspection of the fact that the white race is after the disappearance of three civil rights workers. He said the disappearance was a hoax and added, "My people will continue the investigation."

The Klan's official line on racial issues is set down in a leaflet distributed by Shelton's organization.

"The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is not the enemy of the Negro," it reads. "We hold it is obligatory upon the Negro race and upon all other colored races in America to recognize that they are living in the land of the white race by courtesy of the white race."

"They must not lose sight of the fact that the white race is the ruling race by right of inheritance and that it does not intend to surrender this right or to compromise it with any other race—black, yellow or brown."

The leaflet also says the Klan is "strictly law abiding. . . Every member is sworn to uphold the law, and any member violating this oath would be banished forever from this organization."

Shelton said he agreed with Negro leaders that it would be "a hot summer."

Wider Trailer Transportation

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A mobile home retailer filed suit in Pulaski County Chancery Court here Wednesday asking that mobile homes of up to 12 feet in width be allowed on state highways.

William Roetzell of North Little Rock asked in the suit that a 1959 law making 10 feet the maximum width be voided. Trailer makers are manufacturing 12-foot homes and transporting them on highways in other states, Roetzell said.

In Arkansas homes more than 10 feet wide cannot be moved. Homes more than eight feet wide can be moved if a special permit is obtained.

Phils Reach to Travelers for 2 Players

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies, hot on the pennant trail, called up two young stars from their Class AAA club to bolster the drive to keep atop the National League.

Arkansas, the leader in the Eastern Division of the Pacific Coast League, yielded a slugging first baseman—Costen Shockley—and the ace of its pitching staff—John Booser.

To make room for Shockley and Booser the Phillies sold veteran first baseman Roy Sievers, 37, to the Washington Senators and asked waivers on right-handed pitcher Cal McLish, 38.

The shift gave Philadelphia a squad that includes eight rookies, including two pitchers in the major leagues for the first season.

Booser, 25, was in three games with the Phillies early this season. He was sent down to Arkansas, where he compiled an 8-1 record, including four shutouts and a 2.18 earned run average.

He fanned 76 batters in 95 innings of work. Booser was with Philadelphia last season and had a 1-3 record.

Shockley, 22, of Georgetown, Del., has a .355 batting average with Chattanooga of the Class AA Southern League last season for runner-up in hitting.

In 90 games with the Travelers this season he had 24 home runs, 75 runs batted in and is hitting .300.

Against Smallpox Vaccinations

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Four persons asked the Arkansas Supreme Court Wednesday to overturn a chancery court order that they must have their children vaccinated against smallpox and enrolled in school.

Ulysses Wright, F. R. Mennis, Clarence Sloate and Dean Williams, members of the General Assembly and Church of the First Born near DeWitt, asked the high court to overturn an order by Chancellor Lawrence E. Dawson of Pine Bluff.

The Church of the First Born believes preventive medicine indicates lack of faith in God. The churchmen sued the DeWitt School District because it has a School District because it has a compulsory vaccination requirement. Dawson upheld the district.

Oklahoma in Victory Over Travelers

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Dave Giusti quieted Arkansas' big bats with a four-hitter and Oklahoma City edged the Travelers 3-2 for a split of the four-game Pacific Coast League baseball series here Thursday night.

The triumph pulled the 89ers within two games of the Travelers, who lead the Eastern Division.

Joe Hoerner came on in relief for Giusti to put out the last Arkansas batter. Rusty Staub slugged in all of the Oklahoma City runs.

Giusti struck out seven and walked two.

One of those walks went to pinchhitter Pat Corrales in the eighth inning. Norm Gigon and Alex Johnson followed with singles for the second Arkansas run.

The first one — unearned — came in the fifth when Howie Goss singled, stole second and raced home on a throwing error by Oklahoma City catcher Gary Rushing.

Glenn Vaughan walked and Staub doubled to score him in the first inning. Staub homered after Jim Wynn singled in the fifth for the other 89er runs.

Giants Lose, Phils Win to Go Into First

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers aren't staging any music appreciation nights for Manager Walt Alston, but he has to be enjoying that steady hum of hits.

The defending world champions, closing the gap on the National League leaders since the All-Star Game, continued their heavy hitting at St. Louis Thursday night by walloping the Cardinals 10-2 behind a 13-hit attack.

Ron Fairly again was the key to the attack, collecting his third homer in two nights plus a pair of singles and driving in four runs while the Dodgers finished the three-game set against the Cardinals with 30 runs and 30 hits.

Since the All-Star break, a period of nine games, the Dodgers have hit at an amazing .303 clip with Fairly showing the way at .412. More important, however, has been the awakening of defending batting champion Tommy Davis, finally starting to hit with regularity.

Davis, who hit .326 last season while winning the batting title for the second straight year, has hammered away at .342 since the All-Star Game and lifted his average to a modest, but respectable .268.

The over-all hitting surge has carried the Dodgers to the .500 level for only the third time this season, cut three games off their deficit and pulled them to within eight games of first place—the closest they've been to the top since June 22.

Meanwhile, Philadelphia and San Francisco again exchanged places in the battle for first place. The Phillies rode three hits by rally - starting Cookie Rojas to a 7-5 victory over Pittsburgh and a lead at four percentage over the Giants. Milwaukee's Hank Fischer stopped San Francisco on four hits, 6-0.

Third-place Cincinnati also closed the gap in the tightening race, moving to within 3 1-3 game of the lead by downing Houston 3-2 and the Chicago Cubs crushed the New York Mets 11-1.

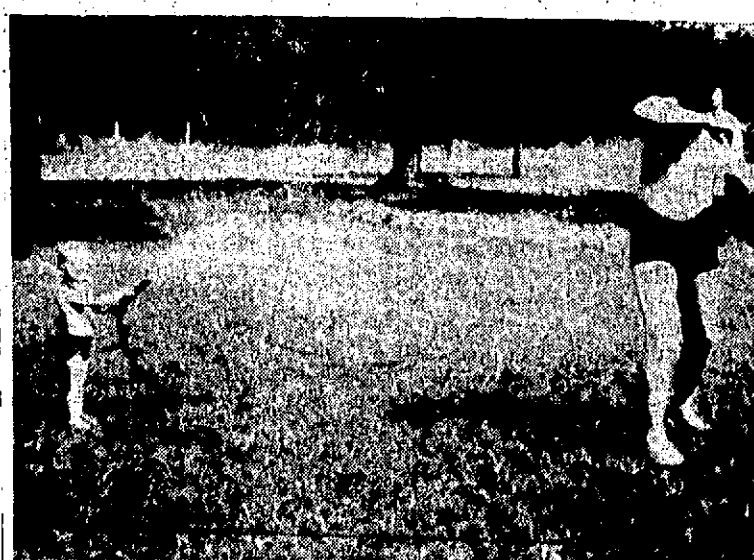

In the American League, Baltimore regained first place by defeating the New York Yankees 6-1, the Chicago White Sox belted Boston 9-3, Cleveland outslugged Kansas City 12-9 in 10 innings and Washington beat Minnesota 7-2. The Los Angeles Angels and Detroit were not scheduled.

Fairly, who has hit only six homers all season, provided the Dodgers with the only runs they needed by slamming a three-run homer in a four-run, first-inning uprising. He wound up the St. Louis series with six hits and 10 runs batted in.

The victim of the Dodgers' first-inning surge was Ray Sadecki, the Cardinals' big winner who now is 10-7. Joe Moeller won it with Bob Miller's relief help.

The Phillies, winning only their second game in the last eight, scored two runs in the third inning after Rojas started things with a single, and came back with three more in the fifth after Rojas smacked a leadoff double. Rojas also collected another single.

The Phillies went against the book in the eighth when Jack Baldschun, working in relief of Art Mahaffey, walked Jerry

Southpaw Is on Disabled List

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves placed rookie southpaw Dan Schneider on the disabled list and purchased right-hander Cecil Butler from Denver of the Pacific Coast League Thursday.

He's Satisfied With a Raise

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pete Retzlaff signed his 1964 contract with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League Thursday and remarked: "I got a raise. I'm satisfied."

Retzlaff signed a one-year contract with the customary one-year option. No financial terms were announced.

Lynch intentionally, filling the bases and putting the potential winning run on with two out. Baldschun got out of the jam by striking out Donn Clendenon.

The Braves handed the Giants their third straight setback and added to their own streak by posting their eighth victory in the last 10 game and the 14th in 19 games.

Fischer brought his record to 7-5 and contributed to his own support with a two-run double. He didn't need it as Hank Aaron, Joe Torre and Dennis Menke homered off Gaylord Perry.

The Reds scored the clincher in the third inning, breaking a 2-2 tie, and then held off the 2-2 tie, and then held off the Colts behind the relief pitching of Bob Purkey and Sam Ellis. Marty Keough scored the winning run, beating out a hit to deep short and racing home from first on Deron Johnson's two-out single.

Ernie Broglio was touched for 10 hits but won his first game for the Cubs since he was acquired from St. Louis June 15. He had heavy support with Billy Cowan supplying a two-run homer and Len Gabrielson contributing a double and two singles.

Nichols Is in Lead, 2nd to Nicklaus

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—You can't say that Gary Player isn't earning his keep over at Jack Nicklaus' house—and it's pretty steep keeping.

Player, who is Jack's house guest at the PGA golf tournament this week, paused between efforts to eat Nicklaus out of house and home, and gave his host a hint that straightened out his swing.

That's a little like adding an extra story to the Empire State building, or an extra steak on little Gary's plate.

But Jack says he can use all the help he can get this week. He's trying to defend his PGA championship before the home folk, and grab the last spot in the golf World Series.

Meanwhile, Player, known as the South African locust, is setting a grocery bill record. Arnold Palmer is dropping over at night and trouncing Nicklaus at snooker, and baby-faced Bobby Nichols is leading after the first round of the PGA with a record 64.

Nichols' round, achieved with the aid of a $5 putter he found on the back shelf in the pro shop in Anchorage, Ky., was also a record for the revamped 6,851-yard Columbus Country Club course.

Nichols, who comes from Louisville, went to Texas on a football scholarship and wound up playing golf instead, was sharper with his bargain basement putter than Palmer was with the snooker stick.

He finished with a three stroke edge on Nicklaus, who had his best opening round in a major championship all year with a 67. Mike Souchak also had 67.

Palmer had a menacing 68, along with five others, including former British Open champion Bob Charles, the New Zealand left-hander, Billy Casper and Don January.

Ben Hogan, the 51-year-old, two-time champion and all-time great had 70, even par, along with Player, and Tony Lema,

Orioles Slap Yanks, Regain League Lead

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

To Hank Bauer, he might be "the disappointment," but to the New York Yankees he's the nemesis.

He—Steve Barber—pitched and batted Baltimore back into first place in the American League Thursday night, leading the Orioles to a 6-1 triumph over the New York Yankees.

The victory pushed the Orioles one-half game and two percentage points ahead of the Yankees and further tightened the AL pennant race. Chicago, a 9-3 winner over Boston, stands in third place, only 1 1/2 games from first.

Manager Bauer, recently discussing his Orioles, labeled Barber the disappointment of the team this season. After all, he was 12-7 with a 2.78 earned run average at this time last year whereas he is 5-7 with a 3.95 ERA now.

That, however, is not the Barber the Yankees have seen this season. The 25-year-old left-hander has won only two games in seven starts the past month, but both have been against New York. He has allowed just one run in each contest.

His victory Thursday night came on a four-hitter and snapped the Yankees' six-game winning streak and the Orioles' four-game losing streak. Even more bitter for New York, though, was Barber's two-run homer in the fifth inning.

The hit wiped out a 1-0 Yankee lead and put Baltimore in front to stay.

In other AL games, Washington knocked off Minnesota 7-2 and Cleveland outslugged Kansas City 12-9 in 10 innings.

In the National League, Philadelphia outlasted Pittsburgh 7-5. Milwaukee blanked San Francisco 6-0, Chicago clobbered the new British Open King, had 71. U.S. Open champion Ken Venturi was at 72, not out of it but needing to get moving.

College All Stars Start Training

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — The College All Star football players, 47 strong, reported Thursday for equipment and physical examination for their Aug. 7 tangle with the champion Chicago Bears of the National Football League at Soldier Field.

Coach Otto Graham has exactly three weeks, pick of the 1963 college grid season.

First No-Hitter in Texas League

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Left-hander Nick DeMatteis tossed the first no-hitter of the Texas League season as El Paso shut out Tulsa 1-0 Thursday night.

New York 11-1, Los Angeles drubbed St. Louis 10-2 and Cincinnati edged Houston 3-2.

Barber's homer was his first of the season and fourth of his career. It came on the first pitch from Jim Bouton after the Yankee starter retired two batters following Sam Bowens' lead off double. Bowens later added a pair of singles, driving in a run.

The Yankees got only one hit after the fourth, Tom Tresh's second single in the sixth. They scored in the second on Elston Howard's double, an infield out and Cleto Boyer's sacrifice fly.

Bill Skowron, playing only his second game with Chicago, drove in three runs with a double and two singles as the White Sox unleashed a 16-hit attack against the Red Sox. Johnny Buzhardt won his third straight game from Boston.

The Twins continued their home run hitting, getting one each from Tony Oliva and Bob Allison, but that's all they got. Don Lock and Don Blasingame each batted in a pair of runs in the Senators' five-run ninth that broke a 2-2 tie.

Cleveland won a wild game from Kansas City with three runs in the 10th, the winning run coming on Woodie Held's double and two more scoring on a double by Vic Davalillo. The Indians rocketed to a 7-0 lead in the first inning but eventually fell behind 9-7.

They tied the game in the eighth on Joe Azcue's homer and Dick Howser's run-scoring single.

Foul Brings Victory to Nefertiti

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Constellation beat Nefertiti by two seconds over a 24-mile course Thursday in the observation trials for America's Cup defense candidates on Rhode Island Sound.

Officially, however, Nefertiti was declared the winner after Constellation fouled the committee boat crossing the starting line. Constellation continued sailing the course in accordance with instructions from the race committee.

In the other race Thursday, unbeaten American Eagle defeated Easterner by five minutes and 23 seconds over the triangular windward-leeward course. It was American Eagle's sixth victory in the series.

American Eagle now has a 6-0 record in the current trials. Constellation is 4-2, Nefertiti 3-2, Columbia 1-4, and Easterner 0-6.

American Eagle is paired with Constellation today and Columbia will meet Nefertiti. Easterner gets the day off.

The British Cup contender, Sovereign, spent more than six hours off shore, testing various sail combinations in preparation for the start of her elimination trials with Kurrewa V next month.

Explosion at El Dorado, Ark.

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) - Three explosions at the Apex Supply Co. here Wednesday shattered windows in four firms and filled the supply firm with smoke.

An employee said he saw a small fire at the rear of a truck parked at the company loading dock. The employee reported the fire just as the first explosion erupted.

Windows in the Apex firm also were blown out. Acetylene cylinders in the truck blew up. Cause of the fire was not determined.

Each of the seven floors of the Basin Park Hotel, Eureka Springs, can be reached without climbing the stairs or riding an elevator, because the position of the building against the mountain makes every floor a ground floor.

THE BONEWINNER

By Steve April

I wasn't shy but I had little time for any social life or girls even if I was past 30. All day I worked as a bookkeeper, a dull job I hated, and most nights when my eyes weren't too tired I worked on a different kind of book, trying to write the great American novel.

True, I was lonely but not unhappy, for writing was my life. But my whole life was "shook up" on Christmas when my grandmother, instead of sending me her usual check, which I could certainly use, sent me Flo—which I need like another hole in my worn suit.

Flo, I must hasten to add, was a tiny, very cute, blue-haired dog. It was a ridiculous situation, being stuck with a dog, although she did help the lonely atmosphere of my room. But it took time from my writing, getting up early to feed and take Flo for a walk, rushing home after work to take her out again, taking Flo to the vet for shots, and all the rest of the doggone bother.

One day the veterinarian told me, "This is a rare breed of dog but it happens I know somebody who has a male and you ought to see about mating the dogs."

"Doc, are you kidding? That's all I'd needpups!"

The vet grinned. "Are you going to fight nature? I'll have the other dog here when Flo comes for her last shot, next month."

That was how I met Jane, who wasn't a dog, in any sense. She owned Harry, who was also a blue-haired terrier. Jane was about 28, of average looks, and on the sensitive side. She worked as a sales clerk all day and painted nights and over the week ends.

Naturally, before you can mate dogs, you have to let them know each other and so Jane and I began spending Saturdays walking our dogs. Flo and Harry hit it off just fine, romping in the park and hiding in the bushes. After two or three weekend I couldn't write. I could barely work, all I could think about was Jane. I visited her place and she showed me her paintings, which were very good.

I let her read a chapter of my novel and she understood the theme I was trying to get over. Well, I knew at long last I was in love and when I told Jane I loved her she cried a little as we kissed, said she'd always dreamt of meeting a man like me.

Of course, I realized that when we married I'd have to forget my writing and buckle down to a second job of book-keeping.

When I asked her to marry me we had our first real fight! Jane said, "I'd love to marry you. You'll stay home and write and I'll support us both."

"Wait a minute, Jane, honey, you'll give up your job and devote all your time to painting. I'll get a part-time job at night to take care of the expenses."

"Nonsense," she said, "I cried when I read your first chapter. I just dabble with paints but you have real talent."

"Darling, your painting is true art. My writing is a jumble of words."

"Oh, no! You have the creative talent of the family. If you give up your writing you'll always hold that against me. It

Big Concern to Keep Party Together

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Republicans' chief concern was not in picking their presidential candidates today—that looked cut-and-dried—but in how to keep the party together after they do.

Two famous party leaders have expressed the depth of this concern. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon both pleaded for unity. And even they didn't agree on how to achieve it.

For weeks Sen. Barry Goldwater looked a cinch for the nomination. But his chief rival, Pennsylvania's Gov. William W. Scranton, who started off with a wishy-washy campaign, wound up in bitterness against him.

Eisenhower thought it would be a "good ticket" if Scranton ran for the vice presidency on the ticket behind Goldwater.

This showed Eisenhower, who played neutral, didn't have much optimism about Scranton's No. 1 chances.

Nixon doubted a Goldwater-Scranton ticket would be good. For one thing, he said, because of the bitterness between Goldwater and Scranton, he didn't think they'd be compatible as team-mates.

There never seemed any doubt at this dull convention that Goldwater controlled enough delegates to nominate him and that the score was in before they got here. This is what made the convention dull.

His followers over the past 3½ years have put together an extremely loyal, hardworking and efficient machine, one of the best this country has seen in years.

But the big unknown in a lithe efforts has been how might ruin our marriage."

"The same goes for your art," I told her.

And so we went, round and round. There seemed to be no solution for our problem, but we knew there was—somewhere. We loved each other and doesn't love always find a way?

Jane wouldn't give in and I certainly wasn't going to be any kept writer, so we had some angry words and didn't see each other for a whole, miserable month. Then I found out Flo was going to have pups and I had to call Jane. She was to get part of the litter. In fact, she could have all the pups. My room was too crowded as it was.

She brought Harry over and we took the dogs for a walk. Jane and I just looked at each other, and tried to talk. Then we were in each other's arms, both realizing how silly our pride was.

Jane and I have been happily married now for four years. We have a modest house in the country, even a little car. Jane paints all day and if she hasn't sold much of her work that doesn't matter, she's doing what she loves best—painting.

As for me, I finished my novel and that hasn't sold yet, either, but I don't care. My writing is improving and I'm working all day on a second book.

You see Harry and Flo solved all our money problems because they are as much in love as we are. Every year Flo has a litter of five or six pups and as blue-haired terriers are so very rare, when the pups are old enough, they sell for $800 each and support us all in fine style.

(The End)

much support Goldwater could expect on Election Day from the ranked-file Republicans around the country.

Although he won the California presidential primary from New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, he lost to Rockefeller in Oregon and in New Hampshire to Henry Cabot Lodge who was off in South Vietnam as U.S. ambassador.

Some of the intensity of feeling in the party showed itself Tuesday night when Rockefeller was booed when he pleaded for an amendment to the party platform repudiating extremism. Rockefeller offered this for Scranton.

Michigan's Gov. George Romney on his own proposed a similar amendment. The platform as it stands was put together by a committee dominated by Goldwater followers. The anti-extremist proposals lost overwhelmingly.

Likewise the delegates lined up with Goldwater—who had voted against the civil rights bill June 19—by drowning out another Scranton effort to strengthen the platform's civil rights section.

The loss of the three governors' states—New York, caused Nixon grievous damage when he ran for the presidency in 1960. They were key states in giving the election to John F. Kennedy.

Between them those three states have 93 of the 538 electoral votes in this year's presidential election.

Rockefeller was Nixon's rival for the nomination four years ago. He was an adamant opponent until Nixon made both a pilgrim and concessions to him. Then Rockefeller supported Nixon.

There's been no such Rockefeller-Goldwater get-together this time, and none between Scranton and Goldwater. Both governors have been intense critics of the senator who is far more conservative than either.

This week Scranton's staff sent Goldwater a contemptuous letter. This was in addition to Scranton's statement some time ago that Goldwater is unfit for the presidency. It's hard to see how he can support him after that.

What Romney will do is fog-bound at the moment. But he has not been in Goldwater's camp.

The kila bear lives on the leaves of certain species of eucalyptus.

LOCAL TEACHERS RETURN FROM MEETING IN SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

By Neva Carmichael
On June 21, about 12:50 p.m. Mrs. Neva Carmichael, the elected delegate to the NEA convention, from district No. 3 of the ATA, and Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rutherford, certified delegates from the ATA left Hope, Ark. enroute to Seattle, Washington. The trip served as a sight seeing and vacation experience as well as convention experience.

The first stop was in Denver, Colo. One whole day was spent on Lookout Mountain, visiting such interesting places as the grave of Buffalo Bill, the Rustic Lodge, with collections of relics used by the Indians and Scouts. The Red Rock Park near Denver, with gigantic formation of brilliant red sandstone provides an amphitheater with a seating capacity for 15,000. Many summer concerts, ballet performances, and square dancing are held there. From Denver we traveled on to Salt Lake City, Utah.

There we toured the historic Mormon Temple. The traditional guided tours of the hour which begins every 30 minutes was quite enjoyable, and most interesting. From Salt Lake City, on to Boise, Idaho for the next night's lodging. Snow capped Mountains, flowing streams, deep gorges, old trails of the covered wagon days, dappled with fields of modern day farming, gardening, and dairying helped to establish higher ideas of the great West.

Arkansas Delegation at National Convention

On arriving in Seattle, Washington, "The Summer Playground of America", we were fascinated by the splendor and beauty. Nature has placed picturesque lakes only a few miles from the largest harbor of Puget Sound.

Lake Washington, 28 miles long, is the largest of these lakes where we rode across this famous floating pentoon bridge on a four-lane highway.

Sunday 11 a.m. found us worshipping in Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Seattle. Rev. Samuel B. McKinney, minister, Sarah Louise Walker, Christian Ed. Director. The atmosphere here was worshipful combined with worshipful music made one feel near the almighty. The minister preached on: The Intersection Of Decision.

On the 28th, we started the bustle and hustle of the NEA convention which kept our attention for the rest of the week. State delegates breakfasts, coffee sips from 7:30 until 8:00, department meetings, department workshops, and the general assembly meetings were enough to keep us on the go for 6 long days. Robert H. Wyatt, the NEA President, stated the theme for our program for the year has been "Responsible Freedom" in all aspects of education and professional activity.

As a special feature the classroom teachers of Washington presented a logging contest, which spotlights the legacy of the Pacific Northwest. . . . the customs of the American Indians who were its first settlers and the lore of the loggers who have contributed to its economic growth.

The highlights of the meeting will be given to the teachers. Just before leaving, the great city, we were carried on a sight seeing tour by a former student of Yerger High School, Mrs. Verna (Ward) Hill and husband.

Our trip began with a tour through the University campus considered one of the finest in the nation with 682 acres, many modern buildings and a new, large hospital and medical center.

Many other places were visited, such as: Metropolitan Seattle, Smith Tower, Canal Lock second to Panama, public library, considered one of the best in the country. The trip would not have been complete without a ride on the Monrail and the Space needle. The Space needle is 600 ft. high. On top is a 250 seat revolving restaurant affording a panoramic view of the city and mountains around this seaport.

Leaving the great state of Washington we traveled the Redwood Highway No. 101. To drive the Redwood Highway is a wonderful and enlightening experience. It is refreshing in its variety, combining valley, bayshore, forest and canyon scenes. The highway leads from sea level to mountain elevations of 2,000 ft. and back. At the "Trees of Mystery" are many unique, unusual and beautiful examples of spectacular tree growth such as Elephant Tree, Octopus Tree, Upside Down Tree, and other odd formations, the Tree Cathedral where numerous weddings have been performed, and where Easter Morning services are observed yearly. Paul Bunyan, the 49 host nodes, waves, and winks as he and Babe, The Blue Ox, greet many visitors to the Trees of Mystery.

Great bridges in California, are famous landmarks, The Golden Gate Bridge and the San Francisco Oakland Bay Bridge are the most famous. To go there without crossing would be doing yourself a great injustice. To view Alcatraz Island from the G.G. Bridge is a great experience. Two nights spent in San Francisco offered us the privilege to see the Giants and Phils play, though the Giants lost, they are still my favorite team.

On to Bakersfield for the next stop off. Then on to the great city of Los Angeles sight-seeing was less exciting. Instead visits with former students from Yerger High School (made the 2 day stay there very enjoyable). Many relatives and friends who question about folks back home and told of their jobs and successes.

The next night found us in Phoenix, Ariz., Arriving in Tucson, we found the Grisbeys preparing a very delicious dinner. From there we crossed the border into Nogales, Mexico. The last night was spent in Big Spgs., Texas.

The convention experiences, the exchanging of ideas with teachers from coast to coast has been stimulating. If travel can't do it, we can say it will help.

The area drained by the Amazon River, a huge basin extending over 2,953,000 square miles, is nearly twice that of any other river.

EDITOR'S NOTE—Vivian Vance, the Ethel Mertz of "I Love Lucy" and Vivian Bagley of "The Lucy Show," writes, for vacationing Cynthia Lowry, about the air traveler.

By VIVIAN VANCE

Written for Associated Press
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—When "The Lucy Show" started in the summer of 1962 I started commuting between my home in Connecticut and Hollywood. I had been married just a short time and jet that with jet travel I could span those 3,000 miles easily.

I would start leading a double life. I'd be Mrs. John Dodds, Connecticut housewife, on weekends and Vivian Vance, actress, in Hollywood during the week. It has worked out just great.

The schedule goes like this. My husband drives me to New York's Kennedy Airport Sunday night or Monday morning, depending on the time I am due on the set at Desilu Studios. It takes about an hour from my farmhouse in Stamford to the airport. In 3 hours and 40 minutes, allowing for the time difference, I am at International Airport in Los Angeles, where my "Girl Friday," Renita Reachi, meets me and in no time I am at the Beverly Hills Hotel.

On Thursday nights, after "The Lucy Show" has been filmed before an audience, Renita drives me out to the airport, where I board the 11 p.m. jet and soon I am in New York. John, who is a literary agent, meets me, and I start a wonderful weekend of keeping house, shopping in the village, cooking special dishes and entertaining our friends.

In the two years, I've picked up a few plane peevess. Recently my seat partner was a man who smoked cigars incessantly during the five-hour flight to New York. There seems to be a tendency in air travel to let passengers smoke whenever, wherever and as long as they wish. I'm going to write to the president of the airlines suggesting that a note be included in their regular pamphlet pointing out this discourtesy.

Few Passengers at Jonesboro

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board said Wednesday that Jonesboro, Ark., was one of 73 cities receiving local airline service that failed to generate at least five passengers a day.

Jonesboro gets Trans-Texas Airways service.

The CAB said it was making the information public so that in each case "the community at large will be aware of its air traffic generation and of the possibility that the service can be lost if not used."

Majority Rules in Consolidation

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A majority of voters must approve a consolidation of school districts before a school board can consent to it, the attorney general's office ruled Wednesday.

Education Commissioner Arch Ford requested the ruling, which he said had been asked by a school district.

The question was: If a small school district voted for annexation to a larger district could the districts consolidate without a vote in the larger district?

Not unless petitions favoring consolidation were signed by a majority of voters in the larger district, the answer said.

Most jet travelers are considerate, however. Most passengers recognize me, but they seldom speak to me. Sometimes before landing, I am asked for an autograph with the explanation that the seeker did not want to bother me because I was resting.

I have learned to travel light and to wear comfortable clothes. When I started, I was lugging travel bags, carrying a coat and even had our poodle in a crate. Now I literally travel in a paper bag, and wear loose garments. I keep two wardrobes, one at home and one in Hollywood.

I have learned to relax. As soon as I board I settle in my seat, close my eyes and before I know it, I'm dozing off to sleep.
